

rammount.com
1-800-497-7479
sales@rammount.com

RAM® 8" Upper Pole

Part #: RAM-VP-TTM8U    UPC: 793442901430    Patented

| PRODUCT INFORMATION |                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|---------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| OVERVIEW            | The RAM upper Tele-Pole™, 8" male pole, contains a swing arm connection point that will attach directly to any double swing arm system with 1.5" Socket. The male post is 8" long and has a diameter of 1.328". |
| SPECIFICATIONS      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| HARDWARE INCLUDED   | Assembly Hardware                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| PRODUCT DIMENSIONS  | Overall Height: 12"                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| MATERIALS           | Powder coated steel                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| PACKAGING TYPE      | Poly Bag                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| WEIGHT              | 1.94 lb                                                                                                                                                                                                         |